

From: Timothy A. Musson
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/25/02 12:50pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I would like to voice my opinion that Microsoft should be severely punished for their anti-competitive actions.

The corporate "citizen" that is Microsoft has used its monopoly to severely injure fellow corporations, and thus has hurt consumers. Their actions warrant heavy financial penalties (real dollars to be spent completely freely by the recipients, not donated software and old computers) and oversight.

Thank you,

Timothy Musson
1900 E 30th St. #601
Cleveland, OH
44114

--

Timothy A. Musson
NASA's John Glenn Research Center at Lewis Field
Software Engineer
Zin Technologies
216-977-0608 It's not the size of the dog in the fight, mussont@zin-tech.com It's the size of the fight in the dog.